CODE OF CONDUCT

It is a requirement of admission to and attendance at the DSG that the contents of the Code of Conduct are read, understood, agreed to and signed by the pupil and her parents/guardians before the pupil starts her first term at the DSG. No girl will be admitted to the DSG unless she and her parents/guardians have signed the Code of Conduct.

NAME OF PUPIL: _____

I, the undersigned, assisted by my parents/guardians identified below, hereby agree and undertake to:

- 1) Respect that the DSG is an Anglican Church School and commit to attending chapel services unless I have been excused in writing;
- 2) Uphold the rules, regulations, policies and procedures of the DSG as laid down by the DSG Council, its Executive Committee and/or its Chairman. By signing the Code of Conduct of the DSG, parents/guardians agree that they will read and discuss the DSG Mission Statement, the Discipline Policy and the school rules contained in the handbook with his/her daughter/ward;
- 3) Co-operate with the staff of the DSG;
- 4) Respect all members of staff, parents, other girls and visitors;
- 5) Respect the needs of others and the property of others and that of the school;
- 6) Be truthful and honest at all times;
- 7) Attend all assemblies unless I have been excused in writing;
- 8) Complete my homework and assignments to the best of my ability;
- 9) Participate fully in the extramural activities and programmes offered by the DSG including sport, cultural and recreational activities and to try my best in all I undertake;
- 10) Be punctual for all my commitments;
- 11) Wear the correct school uniform and be neat and tidy at all times;
- 12) Develop a sense of ownership of the school and pride in my school community;
- 13) Develop self-discipline rather than expect discipline to be imposed from above;
- 14) Refrain from doing anything or omit to do anything that may bring my reputation and/or the reputation of the DSG, its staff and/or the pupils into disrepute;
- 15) Accept responsibility for my behaviour and the consequences that may ensue from my failure to observe the rules, regulations, Code of Conduct and undertaking described herein.
